ORDER:

The SSC Public Examinations, March 2025 and the SSC Advanced Supplementary Examinations, May 2025 for the students of Class X are tentatively scheduled to be conducted in the months of March and May 2025 respectively.

Further, the Government of Andhra Pradesh has revised the Syllabus for the AY 2024-25 for Class-X and bilingual textbooks were issued to the students of Class-X based on the new syllabus. The Blueprints and Model Papers which are prepared as per the new syllabus and textbooks for the upcoming SSC Public Examinations are made available on the official website www.bse.ap.gov.in.

In view of the above, it is hereby informed that the upcoming SSC Public Examinations, March 2025 and SSC Advanced Supplementary Examinations, May 2025 will be conducted as per the new syllabus and new textbooks to the regular candidates who are presently registered in Class-X in the AY 2024-25 only.

Further, for all other candidates registered in the earlier academic years i.e., AY 2023-24, 2022-23, 2021-22 or earlier and who have previously failed in the SSC/ASE 2024, 2023, 2022 or earlier, the examinations of SSC/ASE 2025 will be conducted as per the “Old Syllabus and Old Textbooks” only. The Old Syllabus shall apply to all private/re-enrolled/withheld or malpractice candidates who are eligible and permitted to appear for the SSC/ASE examinations in the year 2025.

In this regard, all the District Educational Officers (DEOs), District School Educational Officers (DSEOs) and Regional Joint Directors of School Education (RJDSEs) are hereby instructed to give wide publicity on the matter through print and electronic media and further direct all the HMs of the High Schools of all managements to convey the information to all the private and re-enrolled candidates of their respective schools and shall ensure that all the candidates prepare for the upcoming SSC Public Examinations as per the syllabus prescribed for them.
